

Camlad Valley Community Wildlife Group

Privacy Statement

Camlad Valley Community Wildlife Group (CVCWG) is a constituted voluntary organisation. Membership is open to anyone who lives or works in the Camlad Valley area, or who has an interest in its wildlife, and who wants to actively contribute to local knowledge and conservation. Members are people who have completed a membership application form or supplied contact details because they expressly wish to be kept informed of the group's activities. The Secretary will maintain a register of members. There is currently no membership fee.

Camlad Valley Community Wildlife Group will at all times be mindful of General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) and will make every effort to uphold and conform to the regulations.

Your contact details will only be used to inform you of the group's activities or other wildlife-related matters that may be of interest.

All emails to more than one recipient will be sent using blind copy or an email platform (e.g. Mailchimp) with its own acceptable GDPR protocols, such that no one recipient is aware of any other recipient's details.

Your contact details held by CVCWG will not be shared with any individual or outside organisation, other than GDPR-compliant email platforms used to distribute mailings, without your express individual consent.

You will find our GDPR Policy Statement on our website at www.shropscwgs.org.uk

If you do not wish to continue to receive mailings from CVCWG, please send an email to the secretary at camladvalley@shropscwgs.org.uk. Your details will then be deleted from all our records.

If you have any concerns about our use of your personal information, you can make a complaint by contacting our chair, Mary Napper-White, at camladvalley@shropscwgs.org.uk.

You can also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office if you are unhappy with how we have used your data.
